

Renew your BelSECT-membership

Dear member

As you might now, your current membership ends at the 31st of March. If you would like to stay a member, please continue reading.

Thank you for choosing to stay a member of our organization, BelSECT vzw. We are pleased to welcome you for another year of interesting meetings, and especially our biennial BelSECT NeSECC Meeting.

As a member you will not only benefit from free entrance to the educational evenings but also from a free subscription to the BelSECT newsletter, a privileged contact with BelSECT and her members and much more.

- Active members shall pay a yearly membership fee of 50 euro as prescribed by the statutes of the BelSECT association,
- Students shall pay a yearly membership fee equal to 50% of the normal active membership fee, respectively 25 euro, as prescribed by the statutes of the BelSECT association which is limited to 2 years of theoretical training,
- Associate members have no voice nor vote during each general assembly and shall not be eligible for election to the office. Associate members shall pay a yearly membership fee of 40 euro.

To activate your account and get access to the information and documents reserved for members, please transfer your registration fee to the BelSECT bank account, with reference "Membership 2019 - your name or names".

If you would like to get an invoice, please contact a member of the Board.
We will activate your account after receiving your payment.

Thank you!
